

The choristers of Vanguard Voices unite in song to celebrate the joy of performing the world's great music! The choir will raise its collective voice in five performances from October through May.

As the season begins, Vanguard Voices and Grand Chorus singers will join the Dearborn Symphony in Felix Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise, honoring the composer's 200th birthday. Next, the Dearborn Holiday Choral Festival will include a vibrant, electrified performance of Robert Ray's Gospel Mass, accompanied by a gospel band with Artistic Director G. Kevin Dewey at the piano.

In the new year, Vanguard Voices will share the stage with other choirs and bands in a jubilant HFCC President's Collage Concert. A month later, the third annual Vanguard Choral Celebration will provide 200 choristers from three choirs the opportunity to showcase their own talents and receive inspiration from the fine performance of others. Finally, the Vanguard Spring Concert will unite Vanguard Voices and the Vanguard Brass Ensemble in a rousing reprise of a repertoire favorite, Mack Wilberg's Tres Cantus Laudendi.

Now in its 18th season, Vanguard Voices was formed to present challenging works, from traditional to modern, with a dedication to musical excellence. Over time its mission has evolved; the group promotes collaboration in performance with myriad ensembles, choirs and orchestras and also fosters entirely new choral music. Composers from around the world will submit their new works in the April 2010 Vanguard Premieres Choral Composition Contest.

We invite all serious singers interested in joining Vanguard Voices to contact Kevin Dewey at www.vanguardvoices.org or (313) 317-6566.

We welcome you as we raise our joyful voices!
